TENDER TETE-A-TETE—Looses half its charms, the sweet words of either party are not mated with a fragrant breath. SOZODONT is the only article that will assure this desideratum by keeping the teeth speckless, the gums healthy, the whole breath pure and undefiled. It literally embalms the dental substance, preserving it from decay, through life. Use it daily. Will find it a pleas-

George, the Count Johannes," that "irrepressible ass" has been boring the President to let him have an interview with Jefferson Davis, but without success.

The Government has discovered that some of their own detectives have been engaged for some time shoving the new counterfiet fifties. They are safely lodged in the Old Capitol prison.

In Wheeling, Mr. Samuel Boyd sued for a divorce. His wife put in a claim for alimony. The result was that Boyd did not get the divorce, but his wife two thousand dollars alimony.

It is of no use for persons or delegations to ask pardon of Jefferson Davis. It is certain as anything that can be said of human affairs that he is to be tried for treason.

Major Gee, late of the Confederate army, has been brought to Washington from Florida and committed to the Capitol prison by order of Secretary Stanton.

The St. Paul, Minnesota, papers are growling at the price of flour, declaring eight dollars to eight dollars and seventy-five cents per barrel to be enormous prices when wheat is ninety and ninety-five cents per bushel, and will soon be lower.

Mr. Godfrey cowhided Bernard Lacey, a young lawyer of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, for making improper remarks about her daughter. For this use of Godfrey's cordial, she was fined one dollar and costs.

Many of the officers and soldiers of the late confederate army are getting employment in the National Express Company. We are glad to see it.

PIEDMONT RAILROAD.—At the meeting of the stockholders of the Piedmont rail road id Danville, last week, the same president and directors were chosen as now have charge of the Richmond and Danville rail road, with the addition of three other directors, J. M. Morehead, of Greensboro', Hon Wilkes, of Charlotte, N. C. The meeting ordered the payment of salaries due the officers of the road who were serving at the time it was seized by military authority. Mr. J. T. Watson was elected treasurer of the company.

Gov. Stone's majority, in all but eight counties heard from, is 15,942.

There will be 200 miles of railroad in Minnesota before winter sets in.

The 2d United States cavalry has passed through Louisville, on its way to the Plains. Three other cavalry regiments will soon be sent to the same destination, to replace volunteers that are now being mustered out.

The La Crosse Republican says the snow was twelve inches deep there on the level Saturday morning.

Our Western exchanges tells us of most severe winter weather in Missouri and Kansas. Heavy falls of snow and snow storms have prevailed along the line of Missouri, and a still further rise is looked for in the stream. Several inches of snow fell in St. Louis on Monday, and several snow storms have been recorded in several parts of Kansas within a few days past.

The redemption of certificates in the Redemption Bureau of the Treasury, for the week ending November 4, amounts to $1,908,040. The redemption of currency for the same period amounted to $1,132.

The annual report of the Sixth Auditor of the Treasury for the Post Office Department, has been completed, and was submitted to the Postmaster General Friday. It exhibits the financial transactions of the Post Office Department for the last fiscal year and shows what has never occurred before in the existence of the Government, that the department has been self-sustaining, and that the excess of receipts over the expenditures amounts to the neat sum of $861,000.

The Norfolk correspondent of the Philadelphia Press says that since the removal of Davis from his prison in the casements of Fortress Monroe to the more comfortable and distinguished ones at Carroll prison, there has been a marked change in his physique and spirits. He is more communicative, more hopeful, and begins to believe that the death he at first feared, by the rope, is postponed until nature herself closes his mortal course.

Portia says "the quality of mercy is not strained," but the telegraph says that henceforth the Attorney General's office will be a sieve through which all applications for pardon must pass.

Mrs. Mary Deal died in Albany on Monday, aged 103 years.

It is intended to erect a monument to Mrs. I. Sigourney, in Hartford, her home, where she died on the 10th of June last.

Dana, the Radical correspondent of the Chicago Republican, writes from Washington:

The city looks as if Mr. Lincoln never existed, and as if we were still in the time of Pierce and Buchanan. Free State influence has again been suddenly wiped out. Slavery politicians are once more in the ascendant. It is no use arguing at Washington about millions slain and millions wasted in the war, and about other trifles of the kind. True enough, the armies of the slaveholders' rebellion have been vanquished; but the feeling that culminated in the war is as rampant and pernicious as ever. Any one who doubts this need only spend a few weeks at Willard's, and this conviction will soon force itself upon the mind. The Southerners are as smart as ever, and avail themselves as skillfully of the siesta of the Free States. While the masses of the people are lulled into security by the apparent restoration of peace, their old enemies kindle the flames of fresh convulsions. They do this with their wonted ingenuity. They get pardoned first, co-operate with the Democrats next, and look upon Andrew Johnson as exclusively their President, just as much as ever Pierce or Buchanan was. It is the old story of these copperhead Presidents all over again, with that fatal difference, that those who were then foremost in their opposition to sham Democracy are now feeble and exhausted.

A confirmed bachelor uses the following argument against matrimony:

Calico is a great prompter of laziness. If young men wish to accomplish anything of moment, either with head or hand, they must keep clear of the institution entirely. A pair of sweet lips, a pink waist, swelling chest, a pressure of two delicate hands, will do as much to unhinge a man as three fevers, the measels, a large sized whooping cough, a pair of locked jaws, several hydraphobias and the doctor's bills.

—Archbishop Cullen has just issued a manifesto to the clergy of the arch-diocese of Dublin, against the Fenian brotherhood, thoroughly condemning it. He denounces Orangemen, Ribbonmen, Fenians and Free Masons, and says that Fenianism is a compound of wickedness and folly.

—The Mississippi Legislature has directed a tax to be levied to support disabled Confederate soldiers and educate soldiers' children. Bills have been introduced to compel railway companies to have separate cars for negroes; to suspend all collection laws of the State, and to tax all suits brought in United States courts.

—HYMENEAL.—We present our congratulations to Mr. A. M. Kelley, once the dashing editor of the Petersburg Index, on the occasion of his leading to the hymeneal alter, one of the fair daughters of his native city. In wishing joy to the happy pair, we predict for our fellow-laborer of the pen a brilliant future in his profession, and, if he wills it, in the walks of politics.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

HIGH RENTS.—In the interest of the entire community, both of those who have property and renters, we have urged that the demands of the property-holders were extortionate and that they would consult their true interests by retracing their steps. The Standard now takes up the subject, saying "it is very certain that the rents in this city and other places in the State are not only exorbitantly high, but are having a tendency to drive capital and business away from us."

This is truth in a nut-shell, though we know of at least one honorable exception in this community. The gentleman to whom we refer has declined to advance his rents one cent beyond the increased taxation as compared with the rates of 1861. This is not only highly creditable, but is an exhibition of true business sense. It shows, too, an appreciation of and sympathy with the embarrassments of the present moment. The people are not in condition to meet ordinary expenses, much less to be subjected to extraordinary pressure upon their finances. Come down, gentlemen, come down from your ungenerous and ruinous rates. In the end such a course will enure to your benefit pecuniarily and otherwise.

STOLEN.—Horse flesh seems to be favorite game for midnight prowlers. Last Friday night, some rascals unknown broke open the stables of W. H. High, at Spring Hill, about two miles from the city, and took therefrom two horses. Of course the thieves escaped and the animals have not been recovered.

It is rather singular that the people of Wake are not up with their fellow-citizens of other counties in the matter of local organization. We believe there are but few counties in the State without an independent police and the consequence is few depredations have to be noticed. It is an easy work if properly managed and our county friends should move in the matter at once. Let the citizens of each neighborhood so combine as to have a posse on every night.

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—We learn that counterfeit $10 greenbacks are in circulation, which appear to be photographed in part, but are hardly well enough done to deceive a person accustomed to handling money. The paper is not good, the engraving indistinct, and the green ink is of an entirely different shade from that of the genuine.

It is said, too, that the fifty dollar counterfeit greenback, heretofore described, is such a successful piece of workmanship that about a dozen copies of it have been paid over the counter at the treasury department in Washington. Treasurer Spinner acknowledges himself puzzled to distinguish good from bad in this case.

BUSINESS NOTICE.—Having to pay cash for everything in the management of our business, we must do a cash business or none at all. Many of our city subscribers are in arrears and we have sent our bills until we are tired of it. We now give fair notice that the paper will be stopped in all cases where the subscription is not paid when presented. Persons at a distance, if of the class mentioned, must remit money to pay the subscription or their paper will be discontinued.

All persons indebted to the Progress office or the proprietor, by note or open account, are requested to settle the same at once.

SELLING AT COST.—E. Z. French & Co., west side Fayetteville street, have a large and desirable stock of goods in store, which they are selling at cost for cash. Having purchased goods of them, we know that their prices are lower than the same kind of goods can be had in New York. Go to French's if you want bargains.

NEW YORK PIANO FORTES.—We call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. Ernest Gabler, in another column. His establishment is one of the largest of the kind in this country, and with his new factory now completed and in full operation, he is enabled to furnish dealers and others promptly, as ordered, with any number of his very elegant and justly popular instruments.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Last Saturday morning, about 7 o'clock, the governor's palace took fire from a defective flue, but was discovered in time to prevent any material damage. The clerks at headquarters were prompt in their movements and extinguished the flames in a twinkling.

IN THE FIELD.—By his card it will be seen that Wesley Whitaker, jr., is a candidate for principal clerk of the Senate. He is a typo and would bring to the discharge of the duties of the position fine capabilities.

GOV. HOLDEN has been confined to his bed for several days by a severe attack of neuralgia. He was somewhat better yesterday, however, and hopes are entertained that he will be able to attend to the duties of his office within a few days.

PERSONAL.—Capt. J. J. Guthrie, whose pardon by the President we announced a week ago, has returned from the North and expects to settle in North Carolina. He is a native of Wake.

A TROUPE of genuine negro minstrels—no burnt cork—performed at Market Hall last Saturday evening.

A HINT OR CAUTION.—Of all the expensive things in a modern house of the ordinary class, perhaps carpets are the direst. In case of removal they become almost useless, and have to be sacrificed at any price that can be got for them, because, having been cut and measured for one room perhaps of a peculiar shape, they are useless in any other; for if the pattern could be matched, which it often cannot, a bit of new carpet sewed on to a bit of old would be out of harmony, and tell a story which the pride of poverty would rather were concealed. The Persian and Turkish system of carpeting rooms is infinitely better and prettier than ours. The Persian carpets, especially those from Resht, are exquisitely beautiful. Their colors are brighter, the designs prettier, and they are far more durable than European carpets. They are made in stripe usually between two and three yards long, and about one yard in breadth, to go round the sides of a room, with a square carpet, or any size preferred, for the centre. They do not require to be nailed or fitted, and a sufficient number of them will, of course, carpet any room, however large or small. They have a very rich and grand appearance too. In summer they are easily taken up, beaten, rolled, and put aside by a single servant.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Government sale of hard bread and damaged beans at Beaufort.

B. P. Williamson & Co.—Corn wanted.

George E. White & Co.—Guano and other fertilizers.

James Hutchinson & Co.—Metropolitan Enterprise.

DELICIOUS—those fine Norfolk oysters kept us from the Farmers Rest. They were gotten up in style by the cook of that establishment and we devoured them savagely. The proprietor, as will be seen by advertisement, has his saloon in full operation and nightly receives the bivalves fresh from the seaboard. Try them raw, fried, stewed, broiled or scalloped.

THE Rev. Dr. Lathrop, of New York, occupied the pulpit of the Baptist church last night and delivered a forcible sermon. In the afternoon, Rev. Mr. Backus, from the same State, addressed the colored people of the sabbath school connected with the church. He gave them much good advice and applauded the enterprise.

METHODIST CENTENNIAL.—The Methodists are inaugurating measures for the celebration of the centennial anniversary of American Methodism, which occurs in the early part of the coming year, although the American Methodist Episcopal Church, as a separate and distinct organization did not exist until Christmas Day, 1784, when at a conference, called for the purpose, at Baltimore, the preachers assumed the title of a church. On the occasion of the celebration of this anniversary, in accordance with the resolutions of the Bishops, an effort will be made to have the occasion marked by a reunion of the different fragments of American Methodism, and more especially by the return of the Wesleyan connection, which seceded from the parent church in 1842, from three causes, viz: slavery, church government, and the sales and use of intoxicating liquors. The matter of education will also be a prominent subject of interest on the occasion. We are not aware that the exact day for the celebration has yet been determined.

—The Supreme Court of Missouri, in the case of Father Cummings, a Catholic priest, who was fined $500 in a lower court for preaching without taking the test oath, has affirmed the sentence, thus sustaining the constitutionality of the ordinance.

—Money was never so plenty and so cheap in California as now. The rate of interest is down to 1 per cent. a month. In September four millions and a half of gold and silver came into San Francisco from the mining districts.

—Havana dates of the 28th October state that the hurricane of the 22d and 23d raged with great force all over the island. In Havana harbor many vessels drifted from the wharves and sunk. The streets of the city were filled with water to the depth of a foot. Houses and walls were blown down. Two-thirds of the roof of the Tacon theatre was blown off. The stars and stripes had been raised on the late rebel ram Stonewall.

—Hon. A. H. Stephens is expected to visit Milledgeville and address the Georgia State Convention before its adjournment. The movement to nominate Mr. Stephens for Governor seems to be gaining strength, and the Atlanta New Era intimates that he has consented to the use of his name.

—Peterson, the comedian, lent a brother actor two shillings, and when he made a demand for the sum, the debtor turning peevishly from him said, "Hang it, I'll pay you to-day in some shape or other." Peterson good-humoredly replied, "I shall be much obliged to you, Tom, let it be as like two shillings as you can."

—The long promised "Memoirs of Lord Byron" by the Countess Guiccioli (now the Marquise de Boissy) are in the hands of the printers, and will shortly be published by Amyot of Paris. With a delicacy which does her credit, the Marquise de Boissy abstained from publishing the work during the life of Lady Byron. Some thirty original letters from Lord Byron will be embraced in the book.

—Morris Ellsworth, the negro who killed his young wife in Newark, New Jersey, a short time since, was sentenced on Thursday to be hung. He will be executed on the twenty-first of December.

—The Free Will Baptist General Conference of Maine has passed a resolution prohibiting the ordination of ministers who use tobacco. The clergymen addicted to the use of the weed say they "don't see much free will about that."

—A tradesman recently told a youth in his shop to write in large letters on a sheet of paper, "Wanted, a stout lad as light porter." The youth wrote down, either from ignorance or design, wrote—"Wanted, a stout lad as likes porter."

—The authorities of the town of Knoxville, in Austria, have rigorously established servant girls and ladies' maids, &c., three months' education.

—The American hash system is to be introduced in Mexico, so that the citizens of modern cities can get hold of a form. The public meeting is to be surrounded into sections and quarter sections of 640 and 160 acres.

—Hon. A. H. Stephens has declined a candidacy for Congress from the fifth Georgia district, saying that he could not, under any circumstances, accept the position, if elected, and therefore hopes his friends will not cast their suffrages for him.

At a concert given in Killarney, Ireland, recently, "God Save the Queen" was hissed.

A dispatch from Milledgeville, Ga., of November 2, says that the Governor has transmitted to the Georgia State Convention voluminous documents, advising the State to claim the cotton which was taken possession of by Gen. Sherman's army. The Governor's telegram to Washington on this subject was laid before the convention and produced much laughter.

—B. W. Green, of Hartford, Conn., late President of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company, in a fit of insanity, on Sunday night, cut his wife's throat with a razor, causing her death in a few moments. He then cut his own throat in two places, and gashed his arm. He is still alive, but there is very little prospect of his recovery.

—It is stated in dispatch from Toronto that no excitement exists in Canada on the question of Fenianism; but from other sources we learn that this is not the case, and there is really much apprehension in the Provinces of a Fenian invasion.

—"What is colonizing, ma?" asked a hopeful miss of seventeen.

"Colonizing, my dear, is having a home, and raising a family," replied the mother.

"Oh! ma, how I would like to colonize," exclaimed the expectant daughter.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

MONDAY, NOV. 13, 1865.

The Election—The Result.

The returns, owing to the want of mail facilities, come in slowly, but enough has been received to warrant the conclusion that Jonathan Worth, Esq., State Treasurer, has been elected Governor. We supported Gov. Holden, believing him eminently qualified to fill the exalted position, that it was due him, and that owing to his influence with the administration, he could do more for our distressed people than any one else; but we have not assailed Mr. Worth, nor will we. He is a gentleman of fine attainments, of sterling integrity, and if the State can be restored to the Union and civil law established in North Carolina, he will make a good Governor.

It is the duty of all to bow to the voice of the people, and now that the elections are over, we trust that all bitterness engendered by the struggle will be buried, and that all will work together for the common good.

We trust, however, that Gov. Holden's great talents will not be lost to the State in the terrible crisis through which her people are passing, and that the Legislature, burying party and party differences, will elect him to the United States Senate, where his influence may still be exerted for the good of a people that he has served so faithfully in his present position.

We learn that Governor Holden has received a telegram from Secretary Seward directing him to continue to exercise the functions of the office of Provisional Governor until further orders.—This, in connection with similar instructions given to the Provisional Governors of South Carolina and Mississippi, would seem to indicate that there is but little hope of the insurgent States being restored very soon. We hope, however, that on the assembling of Congress all the requirements will be met, and that civil law and civil rule may be restored throughout the entire country.

Since writing the above we have been furnished with a copy of the following dispatch to Gov. Holden:

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11, 1865.

To His Excellency W. W. Holden:

The President directs me to say that he expects you to continue in the exercise of the functions of Provisional Governor of North Carolina until you shall have been relieved by directions from him.

(Signed) WM. H. SEWARD.

Shall We Get Back.

We have urged, time and again, that all the conditions imposed for a safe return to the Union by the States recently in revolt against the Government, should be promptly complied with to the end that the Union might be restored and peace and prosperity reinaugurated throughout all our borders. We thought that our State Convention should have ratified the Constitutional amendment, but it failed to do so; nor will the Legislatures probably do any better. Our people may try to maintain their defiant bearing, but we tell them that, sooner or later, they must succumb to the demands of the conqueror and accept the Union upon the terms offered by those who have risked all to preserve it, or remain the subjects of martial law and military rule. Had all the State Conventions come up fully to what was required of them, all would have been well, but they have failed, and we do not believe that a single member will be admitted to Congress until they shall have done it. If the North Carolina Legislature is wise the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment will be among its first acts.

The New York Herald, a paper looked on as very friendly to the South, has the following in a late issue:

Not One.—How many of the late insurgent States, in their work of reconstruction, have met the condition of a legislative ratification of the constitutional amendment abolishing and prohibiting slavery throughout the United States. Not one. How many will come up with the ratification? From present appearances, not one.

Southern Railroads.

Since the turning over of the railroads of the South to the companies and corporations that formerly controled them, the work of reconstruction and equipment has progressed rapidly. On the occasion of our recent trip North we found the North Carolina and Virginia roads in a much better condition than we expected.

The Raleigh and Gaston road, under the admirable management of President Lassiter and Superintendent Johnson, has good cars and engines, and the care taken by allthe employees to guard against accidents makes a travellor feel pretty safe while passing over that line. It is only necessary to pass over the road to satisfy any one that it has been committed to safe hands.

The roads from Gaston to Aquia Creek are also in good running order, if we except the slight damage to bridges between Gaston and Petersburg, caused by the late rains. The trip can now be made to Washington from Raleigh in twenty-four hours, and to New York in thirty-eight.

The rapidity with which the dismantled roads of the South have been put in order, is one of the best evidences that could be given of the rapidity with which a people can recuperate from the ravages of war.

—Solemn masses are said in the principal churches of Madrid to implore deliverance from the visitations of cholera.

How Stands North Carolina?

If our Northern brethren, and those who administer the Government at Washington, want to know how things stand in North Carolina, according to our impressions, we have no objection to speak out. We give it as our honest conviction, based upon the information at hand, that were either Jefferson Davis or Zebulon B. Vance, the one about to be tried for treason and the other a paroled prisoner, under the same charge, to oppose Andrew Johnson for the Presidency, and the election be held to-morrow, they would beat him twenty thousand votes in the State. All the Vance and Davis leaders will be against Johnson when his name is brought before them.

THE so-called Gov. Vance received seventeen votes at the election last Thursday in Forsyth county, for Governor. We have not heard of any votes being cast for Davis, but have no doubt that he will be complimented by his sympathisers when the next Presidential election takes place. Secessionists and traitors may amuse themselves and defy rightful authority now, but they will live to see the folly of their suicidal behavior. Secessionists and Confederate sympathisers may throw up their hats, wring their hands and rejoice, but those who control the Government know them, and mean that they shall be crushed. The Government has conquered treason in the field, it is able to maintain its authority and preserve the Union, and it will do it, even if it be necessary to bring every traitor in the land to the halter.

"GONE UP."—This is a cant phrase hardly admissible in the coarsest kind of composition, and no one could be more mortified than we were on Saturday morning to see it used in the heading to a telegram announcing the death of Hon. Jacob Collamer, U. S. Senator. The telegram was received and put in the paper after we left the office on Friday night, and of course we knew nothing about it until we saw it next morning. We acknowledge our responsibility, however, for all that appears in the paper, for of course we are responsible to the public for the acts and expressed sentiments of our assistants, but as several things have appeared in the paper recently which have not reflected our sentiments, and which we disapprove, we shall endeavor to guard against the like in the future by increased vigilance. "Gone up" may do on a show bill, or in the columns of Punch, but is disgusting when connected with the death of a United States Senator.

The Freedmen's Bureau.

If the legislation of the several States of the South is what it ought to be, relative to the freedmen, the "Bureau" will be removed soon, and the control of the freedmen will be left to our local laws. Let our statesmen accept the logic of events and perform their duty in the matter. We can have no great prosperity under the present condition of things. On this subject the New York Times says:

There is no doubt that the general operations of the Freedmen's Bureau have been eminently favorable to the restoration of order and labor in the Southern States. The existence of the Bureau was limited by Act of Congress, to one year after the termination of the war, so that, unless further special action is taken by the coming Congress, it will cease to exist next spring. In the meantime, the Legislatures of all the Southern States which will be in session this winter, and they will all be in session except those of Florida and Texas, should promptly take up the question of the Freedmen's rights and relations, and establish such laws and regulations as are demanded by justice and humanity. It would be much better that the whole matter should be in the hands of the Southern people and the respective States; and if they evince a purpose to treat the question as the circumstances d mand, Congress will leave it entirely to their jurisdiction, by taking no measures for perpetuating the existence of the Freedman's Bureau.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S DOMINIONS.—The Queen of England is now sovereign over one continent, a hundred peninsula, five hundred promontories, a thousand lakes, two thousand rivers and ten thousand islands. Her subjects number more than one hundred and fifty millions. By a wave of her hand she can summon an army of five hundred thousand soldiers, and a navy of a thousand ships of war and a hundred thousand sailors. The Assyrian empire was not so wealthy as that of Great Britain; the Roman Empire was not so populous; the Persian Empire was not so extensive; the Arabian Empire was not so powerful; the Carthagenian Empire was not so much dreaded; the Spanish Empire was not so widely diffused.

Details of the Negro Insurrection at St. Thomas.

The bark Reunion, Captain Tracy, from Port Antonio, Jamaica, with dates to October 16, arrived at New York on Thursday, bringing some details of the insurrection in the island of Jamaica. The most fearful excesses were commited by the negroes, and the insurrection raged in all its fury. The rebels were in full possession of Port Morant, and had killed several of the officials and citizens, including Baron Kettleholtz, the custos or chief officer of the city.

The following letter from the Collector of Customs at Port Morant gives the fullest details of the destruction of life and property at that place:

ON BOARD HER MAJESTY'S SHIP-OF-WAR, WOLVERINE, Port Antonio, Oct. 16, 1865.

The above will inform you that I am not in the old quarters at Port Morant, but am under the protection of a ship-of-war.

We have had a fearful rebellion in St. Thomas, the East, and at the time I am writing there is not a single white inhabitant in the parish. The rebellion broke out at Morant Bay on Wednesday last, when the following persons were killed

Baron Kettleholtz, the custos.

The Rev. Victor Herschill, of Bath.

Mr. Walton, proprietor of the Retreat Estate.

Two sons of Rector Cooke, and about twenty other persons belonging to Morant Bay.

Captain Hitchins, Lieutenants Hall and Reid, the officers of the Bath volunteers, and poor Herr, of Amity Hall Estate, who was killed in his house in the presence of Mr. Creighton and Dr. R. S. Crowdy, the latter of whom was lying sick and whose life was saved by his taking an oath not so dress the wound of any white man.

Shortbridge, Harrison and Chisholm had a narrow escape; so had their wives and children. Mrs. Harrison and her children, and Mrs. Shortbridge and her children, were in the woods for three days and nights, but were rescued by the military and taken to Kinston in a gunboat.

I am here with only the suit of clothes on my back. I went up into the woods until the military came. My servant boy, Thomas, behaved well and saved my life, and ultimately took me over to Port Morant, when the soldiers came, and so I got on board the ship-of-war. Everything in my house has been taken away.

The brutality is beyond anything you ever heard of. Baron Kettleholtz's head was cut off and his body cut up from trunk to heel; so was Walton and Hitchins, and a black man, lately a member of the local Legislature and an educated man and much respected; his belly was cut open and the entrails taken out while he was alive, and this was done by women. Dr. Major had a very narrow escape, and so had his friend Warmington; the latter, however, is dreadfully cut up.

Martial law is proclaimed. The Governor is here in person and so is the General. We have a large military force.

Many prisoners are taken. Eighty-one are already sentenced to death, and a large portion of them have been executed already.

All our lady friends at Port Morant were taken to Kinston by a gunboat. All the stores in Manchioneil are cleaned out, including our friend Kirkland.

Mr. Jackson, the magistrate, was severely wounded at Golden Grove, but he is not dead. Yours, in sad distress, GEO. A. HAGUE.

The New York Election.

Referring to the result of the election in New York, the Times says:

In their defeat the Democrats have the consolation of knowing that President Johnson and his policy have received the hearty and emphatic indorsement of the people of this State. The Union party has not been driven a hair's breadth from its position. Neither the clamorous claims, the flagrant misrepresentations, nor the arrogant menaces of its opponents have shaken its purpose or cooled its ardor in the least degree. It resolved in State Convention to support the President and his policy of reconstruction; and upon that platform it has carried the State by a majority three times as large as was given for Lincoln and Johnson in the Presidential election a year ago. If the Democrats were sincere in their professions they have no reason to regret this result. It will give fresh and powerful support to the policy they profess to admire. It will strengthen the President in his position and give him renewed assurance of popular support, in the great work he has so auspiciously begun.

We trust the Democrats will not withdraw the support they have pledged the President on account of the defeat they have suffered. The defeat implies no hostility to the principles they have proclaimed, but only distrust of their professions. Let them vindicate themselves against this distrust. They have now a splendid opportunity to prove that they were thoroughly in earnest. Adversity alone tries the good faith of parties as well as individuals. If they had been triumphant, their motives would always have been open to suspicion, for men are never charitable in judging of professed conversions accompanied by great rewards. If they adhere to the President now, in the face of defeat, they will silence calumny and compel the confidence and admiration of an incredulous world. Nous verrons!

The World, a leading organ of the Democracy, of the 8th, thus comments on the election:

"The result of yesterday's election is shown, even by the partial returns received up to the hour of going to press, to have been a republican victory. We have no desire to count our wounds, nor to conceal them. They are the witnesses of a manly struggle, against odds. Nor would we conceal their disastrous consequences—not so much to the party, which will outlive and outlast and bring to the dust these victors of to-day, and whose principles being true are imperishable; but, in the defeat of the Democratic party, President Johnson's plan for the immediate restoration of the Union is defeated also. The tide of fanaticism which has swept over the nation, engulphing its laws, its liberties, and its material prosperity, though visibly abating, has not yet reached its ebb. Every hour it falls, and the time cannot be far distant when the people of the North, so long led through deep waters by blind guides, will search for dry land and other leaders. That day will see the triumph of Democratic principles and of those who have faithfully upheld them.

In the election just closed, the Democratic party has been faithful to its time-honored principles. It has sought nothing less than the good of the whole country. It did not hesitate to indorse the measures of an administration whose election it had opposed, for those measures were well adopted to the end which it never lost sight of through four years of war—restoration of the Union and its laws, of peace, of our civil liberties, of local self-government, and of fraternal good-will between all sections of our common country. And to-day the chief regret of every intelligent Democrat will be, not that a local election has been lost, but that Mr. Johnson's political measures for the early restoration of the Southern States to their co-equal and normal relations in the Union, which was the chief and almost the only national issue at stake in the late canvass, have not received the weighty indorsement of the Empire State.

—There is not a word of truth in the canard going the rounds that President Johnson is about to reorganize his Cabinet. He will no doubt hold on to his present advisers to the end of his term of office.

—General Longstreet has taken private lodgings in Washington city, and is to remain there some time.

The wharves, says the Wilmington Dispatch, are literally covered with cotton and naval stores. The business of the city is rapidly increasing, and the steamships are kept constantly running, with cargoes, between here and New York. Freights frequently engaged two weeks in advance of the sailing of a steamer. A large number of sailing vessels also engaged in conveying to the different ports of the world the valuable and indispensable products of the "old North State." Long may this prosperity continue, and may the golden anticipations of every man, woman and child, (including ourselves,) be more than realized.

There is a fine picture of the prosperity of one of our sea board cities, but can our friends of the Dispatch explain how it is that Newbern merchants outsell Wilmingtonians in the matter of being known to the people. Is it not attributable to the liberal use of advertising, far and near, which the latter does not?

The N. C. Presbyterian is to be revived under the editorial control of Mr. Fuller, the former editor. The first number will appear the second of January.

A grand tournament and ball came off at Yanceyville on the 8th inst.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM,

HERRING'S PATENT CHAMPION SAFES.

The most reliable protection from fire now known.

HERRING & Co's PATENT BANKER'S SAFES, with Herring & Floyd's Patent Crystalised Iron, the best security against a burglar's drill ever manufactured.

For the Progress.

Meet Me at the Gate.

BY MARTIN V. MOORE.

Oh, meet me at the gate, my love,
  Oh always meet me there,
With welcome in a happy heart
  And bonny smiles so fair!
Come, bounding out the shady path,
  With tender soul elate—
A kiss upon thy dear, sweet lip,
  To give me at the gate.

My steed shall arch his neck so gay,
  As eager in his pride,
To watch our meeting at the gate—
  The greeting by his side:
The day may come if in his glee,
  He gladdens at the fate;
But keep the secret outre nous
  When coming to the gate!

I would not have thy mother gaze
  And break thy lover's bliss;
Nor yet thy sister, for they might
  Thus rob me of my kiss!
But from thy window all day long
  My coming watch and wait;
And drop thy sewing and thy song,
  And meet me at the gate.

Don't be at music with the gay,
  Nor in thy garden fair:
My steps might be within the hall,
  And would you kiss me there?
Dear girl, I would not bring thy blush—
  Thy love might turn to hate—
But if you'd give me double joy,
  Then meet me at the gate!

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU for non-retention or incontinence of Urine, Irritation, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Bladder or Kidneys, disease of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel or Brick Dust Deposit, and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys and Dropsical Swellings.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU FOR WEAKNESS ARISING FROM EXCESSES OR INDISCRETION.

The constitution once affected by Organic Weakness, requires the aid of medicine to strengthen and invigorate the system, which Helmbold's Extract Buchu invariably does. If no treatment be submitted to, consumption or insanity may ensue.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,

in affections peculiar to females, is unequaled by any other preparation, as in chlorosis or retention, irregularities, painfulness or suppression of customary evacuations, ulceration or scirrhous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa, and all complaints incident to the sex, whether arising from habits of dissipation, imprudencies, or in the decline or change of life.

HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU AND IMPROVED ROSE WASH, will radically exterminate from the system diseases of the urinary organs arising from habits of dissipation, at little expense, little or no change in diet, and no exposure, completely superseding those unpleasant and dangerous remedies, Copaiba and Mercury, in curing those unpleasant and dangerous diseases.

USE HELMBOLD'S FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU

in all cases of the urinary organs, whether existing in male or female, from whatever cause originating, and no matter of how long standing. It is pleasant in taste and odor, immediate in its action, and more strengthening than any of the preparations of bark or iron.

Those suffering from broken down or delicate constitutions, procure the remedy at once.

The reader must be aware that however slight may be the attack of the above disease, it is sure to affect his posterity. Our flesh and blood are supported from these sources.

PHYSICIANS, PLEASE NOTICE!

We make no secret of the ingredients. Helmbold's Fluid Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, and prepared in vacuo by H T HELMBOLD, Druggist and Chemist of sixteen years' experience in the city of Philadelphia, and which is now prescribed by the most eminent physicians, has been admitted to use in the United States army, and is also in very general use in State Hospitals and public Sanitary Institutions throughout the land.
